FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

June 16, 2005

WE'RE FIVE!

Atlantis Marine World Celebrates Fifth Birthday.

- WHAT: Atlantis Marine World is blowing out the candles on its 5th birthday and celebrating with a cake-cutting ceremony where our founders will unveil our new facility map that shows just how much we've grown these past five years.
- WHERE: Shark Room, Atlantis Marine World, located on East Main Street in Riverhead.
- WHEN: Friday, June 17, at 12 noon.
- WHY: The cake-cutting ceremony is part of the week-long festivities at Atlantis Marine World, which include: all five-year olds get in free to the Aquarium (copy of birth certificate), the first five visitors get in free daily, 5% off each paid admission, 5% off in café and gift shop, and $5 off Atlantis Explorer tour boat.

Atlantis Marine World is open 364 days a year (closed December 25) from 10am to 5pm and features more than 100 exhibits, including a 120,000-gallon Shark Exhibit, the largest living Coral Reef in all of North America, Ray Bay, Snorkel with the Rays, Sea Lion Shows, Japanese Snow Monkeys, Atlantis Explorer tour boat, Interactive Salt Marsh, Trainer for a Day, and coming this summer, African Penguins!
