WHICH CAME FIRST, THE PENGUIN OR THE EGG? Egg Hunt and Family Brunch Scheduled at Atlantis Marine World.

Atlantis Marine World will hold its second annual Penguin Egg Hunt on Saturday, April 15 from 10:00am to 1:00pm, free with paid admission.

The egg hunt offers plenty of great prizes, including a free birthday party (restrictions apply), arcade game cards, Atlantis Explorer tour boat tickets, and Discovery Tower/Submarine Simulator rides.

And if chasing eggs makes you hungry, check out our Penguin Egg Hunt Family Brunch, with seatings at 9:30am and 11:30am. It's the perfect way to start or end the hunt. Call 631.208.9200, ext. 116 for pricing and reservations.

"We are egg-cited about our newest addition to Atlantis Marine World and this Egg Hunt will be a true egg-stravaganza," muses Aquarium Curator and Co-Founder Joe Yaiullo, tongue planted in cheek. "But in all seriousness, we are thrilled about our newest exhibit, and even moreso now that we look forward to the beginning of the breeding process. That makes this egg hunt a very timely one indeed."

Atlantis Marine World, Long Island's newest Aquarium, is located in downtown Riverhead on 3.2 acres along the scenic Peconic River. By capturing our visitors' imaginations and emphasizing the importance of marine life and environmental conservation and preservation, Atlantis Marine World's mission is to provide visitors with an interactive and exciting educational experience. Atlantis Marine World is also the home of The Riverhead Foundation for Marine Research and Preservation, New York's only authorized marine mammal and sea turtle rescue and rehabilitation center.
